The Austin Motel opened its doors in 1938, and its landmark neon sign has illuminated South Congress Avenue ever since.

In 2018, Joann's Fine Foods debuted as a lively Tex-Mex Diner & Patio Restaurant. It's named after an elegant, fiery, West Texas woman always in her signature red lipstick. This place was made for her, for you, and for everyone.

A lot has changed over the years on South Congress, but true Texas hospitality and home cooked classics still shine at Joann's. Make yourself comfortable and grab a margarita—we're happy you're here.

So Close Yet So Far Out. All Ways Welcome.
